'$54,469 grant creates 20 jobs in county

Jobs for 20 unemployed Medina County residents has been made possible by a $54,469.86 grant released by the federal government through the Alamo Area Council of Governments.

County Judge Jerome Decker made the announcement at a Tuesday morning Hondo meeting called for the purpose of determining the number of jobs for each locale in the county.

The division as announced will provide employment on jobs paying $1.60 per hour in: Hondo-D'Hanis, 7; Devine, 4; Natalia, 3; Castroville-LaCoste, 4; and Commissioners Court, 2.

Job positions will be determined by each government entity on whose payroll the new employees will be included. Employees will be entitled to all fringe benefits enjoyed by regular employees, with the exception in some instances of retirement.

The program, as announced by AACOG officials in a Friday meeting attended by Judge Decker, Hondo City Manager Fritz Leinweber and Domingo A. Leyva of Hondo and other county residents, is planned for two years. However, it is funded for only 10 1/2 months at this time.

It is designed to provide jobs to the unemployed and in some cases the underemployed in public service areas of the county, cities, etc. However, there are certain conditions which must be met and these will be explained by the people doing the hiring.

This program calls for a total of $6,052 in kind contributions by the entire county, which Judge Decker estimates runs to about $302 per position.

At the meeting Friday it was revealed that Medina County has the second highest unemployment percentage of the 10 counties in the AACOG area. Guadalupe County is the highest.

Medina County has a work force of 6,285 with 820 estimated unemployed. This is a percentage of 17.2 percent. Using a formula which accepts 4 percent unemployment as the figure which will more than likely be prevalent, this leaves 369 without jobs.

"Of course," explained the Judge, "this does not include certain people, like agricultural, recent high school graduates, etc. So you can see the figure is actually higher."

Attending the Tuesday morning meeting were Fritz Leinweber, Hondo; State Rep. John Poerner; Domingo A. Leyva, Citizens for Better Government, Hondo; Hilmer Marzgold, County Commissioner.

MEETING SET
Directors and members of the Medina County Museum are reminded that the regular date for a meeting will be Monday, Sept. 13. Time will be 8 p.m. at the Medina Electric Co-op Bldg.

Against Del Rio

An epidemic of fever has thousands of Hondo residents burning and the only cure has to be some 10 weeks away, but Friday night Coach Nelson Bippert and his 1971 Owls can check it considerably by filling the fans prescription for a win over Del Rio in the season opener football battle.

Coach Claude Fest brings his Del Rio Wildcats to Barry field Friday night, Sept. 10, and one might say they are coming shrouded by mystery.

The merger of the Del Rio and San Felipe school districts has provided the coach with many candidates from

School dedication planned

Pride in the progress of the Hondo educational system will show Tuesday, Sept. 14, at the official dedication of the more than $900,000 McDowell school facilities.

Scheduled for 7:30 p. m.

in the cafeteria of the new school the dedication will include an Open House so that the public can see the entire facilities.

J. G. (Cub) Barry, superintendent of schools for some 35 years prior to his retirement July 1, is to be the principal speaker. It was under his supervision that the bond issue was passed and the new facilities built to provide Hondo with one of the finest middle school facilities in South Texas.

The dedication also will include the new Homemaking Vocational Ag and Fieldhouse facilities at the high school, making a total of $1,100,000 in new facilities now in use.

Also participating in the ceremonies will be Mrs. M. L. McDowell, wife of the longtime principal for which the building is named.

Principal Ed Hilsher will open the ceremonies with a welcome, after Master of Ceremonies Supt. Kenneth Flory calls on Floyd Hill for the invocation. The dedication will be given by Father Emmett Carolan.

Present Board of Trustees, which includes Elmer Joe Leinweber Jr., president, Glenn McWilliams, vice president, Jack Been, secretary, Judge Sandusky, Milton Renken, Bill White and Lloyd Hardt will be joined by immediate past board members Tom Kuykendall and Marcellus Garrison.

Following official dedication ceremonies refreshments will be served by Homemaking II students and then parents, students and other invited guests will have the opportunity to see the entire layout.

Architecture of the new school somewhat resembles the medieval castle with the exception it has no moat. However, its block type structure has two wings of classrooms, administrative offices and library, cafeteria and gymnasium all surrounding a courtyard containing a fountain arrangement around which the students can sit. The entire school yard can be isolated from the outside by iron gates.

Two wings on the east and west contain 26 classrooms and two science labs in clusters of four. On the southside the structure rises to two stories with the top being occupied by the library, administrative offices and lounge and the bottom filled with lockers and rest rooms. Filling in the northern segment of the square are the cafeteria, gymnasium and dressing rooms.

With the exception of the gym and dressing rooms, the entire school is airconditioned. These two are cooled by exhaust ventilation.

The gymnasium has six inside backboards and will

Little girl, big balloon

That concentration on the part of this young lady is not whether the balloon will take her away; it's whether or not the photographer is worth smiling for. Anyway she holds tightly to the oversize balloon she bought at the St. John's Homecoming Festival Sunday. The event was described as "the best ever" by officials.

Owls to 'prescribe fever medication'

which to choose a football team. And Coach Bippert says, "We don't really know what he has as to individual talent."

Hondo's coaching staff is preparing to defend the Wishbone T attack Fest likes to use. "He runs the option a lot, with an occasional trap up the middle," Bippert said. "Usually he splits one end, but on occasions will split both ends. They pass quite a bit. But other than that we know very little."

Del Rio sent no starting lineup, but the roster shows some pretty hefty boys suited up for the 1971 season. Two centers are listed at 200 and 204 pounds, Renaldo Andrade, tackle, is listed at 252 pounds while tackle Glenn Blanks carries around 225 pounds. In the backfield Coach Fest can start ballplayers ranging from 147 to 181 pounds.

Across the scrimmage line from the Maroon and Gold of Del Rio the picture shows a little clearer in the Oldcamp.

Coach Bippert showed much enthusiasm over the improvement shown by the Owls against Boerne compared to the Southside scrimmage. "They looked much better," he said. "Of course they made mistakes which they will have to correct Friday night if they expect to win. But at times they showed good blocking, good tackling and fine running."

Nick Turner served as field general Friday night since Tom Hill missed the scrimmage because of a virus. This week Kurt Leinweber had his run at the sick bed and if he is unable to start Friday night, Coach Bippert said he would go with Freddie Bader at center. Mark Timmerman is still nursing a bruised knee and Ben Ybarra is out with a bro-

Barring any unforeseen happenings Bippert said his tentative starting lineup will show:

Up, Up and away

Just one of the thousands of satisfied customers at the St. John's Homecoming Festival is shown here. What more can a young lady ask than a snow cone on a hot day and a big yellow balloon to take her "up, up and away". Officials termed the Festival a "great success"!

Former resident disagrees

August 27, 1971

Dear Mr. Lawrence:

For many year, I have enjoyed reading THE HONDO ANVIL HERALD. In fact, while I lived in Hondo, it's publication schedule affected the very tempo of our household life. It is because I feel a strong bond with the HERALD that I must register my complaint.

The picture on the front page of your August 19th issue was in my opinion in extremely poor taste. In deference to the deceased, the body should have been covered or not photographed at all for the purpose of public dissemination. I cannot help but feel that the macabre photogenic aspects of the scene were given more consideration than the time honored respect for the tragic death of a human being. I hope that future incidents as this will be handled with more candor.

As for your editorial concerning conditions in East Hondo, I commend you for your feelings that something should be done. However, I have heard those words and had those feelings before. I spent my formative years in that section of town. I vividly recall our people being extricated from the quagmire of their homes to the court house on the old flat bed garbage truck practically every time it rained. It would be grossly unfair to say that conditions have not changed at all; however, some of the same families and homes that were evacuated twenty years ago are still evacuated today, and for the same reason. I am aware that an adequate drainage system will cost money and that those who will directly benefit from such a system are the most economically deprived.

These reasons, rather than defer, should unite the peoples of Hondo, thus making it a better place to live for everybody.

Allow me to digress from the subject of community consciousness to that of community relations. Your comments about the efforts of the Citizens for Better Government (CBG) lead me to believe that at no time were you ever frustrated in the attainment of your rights according to law. To denigrate instead of guide the sincere efforts to a group for the common good, I believe is petty. Although I am not in concert with all the objectives or tactics of the CBG, simply because I don't know them all, I feel that they can be a useful vehicle for educating the people who have borne the brunt of undereducation. These, my people, would greatly benefit from learning about civil matters, civil administrative procedures, citizens' rights, and even things we take for granted such as the duties of a city mayor or any city official. For that matter, the HERALD could be an instrument of education for the people by the persons who are knowledgeable in these areas. A paternalistic attitude in this day and age will not be tolerated and the self delusions of the ostrich will only placate those who do not wish to see.

Hondo holds a very dear place in my heart and I would hate to think that if I ever go back to live there, I will not be able to perceive any progress in everyday brotherly love.

Dr. G. C. Pedroza, Jr.

Dear Sheriff:

On behalf of the people of Castroville and St. Louis Parish, I want to thank you and the posse members for the beautiful job you did for St. Louis Day last Sunday. I know that they are recently organized, but they looked like real veterans. As you know their presence along with other charges meant that we did not have a repeat of last year's problem. Please convey to them the gratitude of all of us.

Sincerely in Christ,
Father Larry Stuebber
and St. Louis Parishoners

Dear Sheriff Hitzfelder:

The City Administration of Castroville expresses sincere appreciation to you and all your deputies for the exceptionally fine job that was done in keeping order at our St. Louis Day Celebration.

We've heard nothing but praise for their courtesy, helpfulness and their very neat appearance. All of you are to be congratulated.

Very truly,
Samuel H. Tschirhart, Mayor

Mr. Fritz Lanham
Governor's Office
House of Representatives
Austin, Texas 78711

Dear Fritz:

I would like to have the names of the individuals from the various agencies who will be present for the meeting in Hondo on Sept. 21. I think the local newspaper would like to advise the people of the area who will be present and who they represent. If possible, please give us the individual's title and or experience.

The last issue of the Hondo Anvil Herald prior to this meeting will be Thursday, Sept. 16. I believe their deadline is about Monday evening, which would be the 13th.

If possible, please mail me a list of the people involved and I will see that it is delivered to the Hondo Anvil Herald.

Thanks so much for your cooperation and I will look forward to seeing you on the 21st.

Sincerely,
John H. Poerner

DISCUSSING CITY NEEDS

In a conversation Sunday with Rep. John Poerner at the very successful St. John's Homecoming Festival, I learned that the September 21 meeting set up to discuss needs of the city will be one that no one will want to miss.

Poerner says he has been told that all departments are giving their fullest cooperation to making the meeting a success. "I have been told that each federal department has been told to send their top men to the meeting so that all questions can be answered," the State Representative said.

"And Fritz Lanham of the Governor's office says he will have the best qualified people here to talk on the subjects on the state level," Poerner said.

So mark that date on your must attend list. That will be 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 21, in the City Municipal Building.

WHAT ABOUT A PTA?

Has anyone heard mention of a Parent-Teacher Association chapter being formed in Hondo this year?

I sure haven't. And that leads me to wonder if it isn't just out of "pure I don't care a darn attitude" rather than all the jazz I was given last year about the organization being powerless to accomplish anything.

Do we need a PTA?

My answer would be "yes". We need such an organization to provide better communication among parents, teachers, students and the administration.

PTA is not, and was never intended to be, designed to "run" the schools. That is what we hire superintendents, principals and teachers for, and then elect Board members to guide them. But PTA can expand much energy toward constructive ends to bring about a closer harmony, a better understanding among the various groups that go toward making up a school system.

Here I would like to quote a very true statement from a recent issue of the newspaper in Floresville: "For nine months a year, our teachers see more of our children than do we parents. We, as parents, should get to know a little, or even a lot, more about these people who spend so much time with our youngsters. And, perhaps the teachers could do a better job if they got to know the people these 'kids' live with."

And I chime in with: And perhaps our "kids" would be better served if they knew we parents knew their teachers personally and felt strongly enough about them to "throw our support behind them" in the things that are needed to provide our children with an adequate education. Maybe we would hear a lot of guff from the kids about siding with the teachers, but if we would do so more often everything would be better all around.

Which brings me around to the original question "Do we have a PTA this year? And if not, why?"

To take it easy now

Joe Dominguez, 67, was in the spotlight Friday, Sept. 3, when he was honored with a retirement coffee by faculty and staff at McDowell school. Here he and Mrs. Dominguez accept a watch from Principal Edward Hilsner as a "thank you" token for 19 years of work with the schools. Joe came to Hondo in 1913 from his native Piedras Negras, Mexico. He was 9 years old and could speak no English. He attended Hondo High School only one year and then another year at a school conducted in Spanish. Joe and Mrs. Dominguez are parents of three sons and two daughters, all educated in local schools, all married and living in this area. Hilsner and other school personnel expressed regret at Joe's leaving and described him as "a dependable, dedicated fellow-worker". Joe said he would take it easy unless "my wife sees me resting too much."

Owl Band tell plans

Greetings Owl Band fans! Well, another school year of long, hard work for the Hondo Owl Band has begun under the leadership of Mr. Billy Harrell. With a non-honorary membership of 112, the band began practice on Aug. 16. Overcoming the loss of last year's seniors and the problems of new members, the band is putting together many surprises in the form of new routines, music for all ages, and special shows for the home fans.

Another patriotic show which promises to be bigger and better than last year's is also being planned. On Sept. 18 the "true blue" Owl Band, sporting casual uniforms of blue shirts and white jeans, will represent Hondo in Devine's Clean-Up Day Parade.

Leading the band this year is Drum Major Lacy Gilliam. Twirlers are Georgia Landers, Myra McCartney, Donna Zerr and Robyn Saathoff. The announcer for the half-time shows will be Wayne Stein. 1971-72 band officers are as follows: President is Yvonne Saathoff; vice-president, Debbie Beard; secretary-treasurer, Sherri Weyand; reporter, Grace Brookshire; Sr. representative, Karla Wiemers; Jr. representative, Crickett Schweers; Sophomore representative, Ladell Been and Freshman representative Rhonda Graff.

On Sept. 10 when the Owls meet Del Rio's Wildcats in Barry Stadium the Owl Band will be playing and marching in a fine half-time show. We hope to see you there and have your support.

Henry Riener, San Antonio, Grand President of the statewide fraternal order, revealed.

James C. Wicker is camp director.

Campers from Hondo this summer included: Brian David Bader, Garland Bader, Larry Bohmfalk, Brian J. Boon, Clay Alan Braden, Darrell J. Britsch, Mark S. Britsch, Chris D. Cole, Douglas E. Cole, Tim Lee Gilliam, Cliff L. Heyen, Forrest Horecka, Jr., Wm. Peyton (Bubba) Laughinghouse, Dale Martin, David

Recent rains finally accomplished what no other rain has been able to in 10 years; they caused water in Medina Lake to rise to the point that it went over the spillways. This picture by Mrs. E. W. seat about 350 persons on folding bleachers. Also under construction are eight outside backboards. Dressing rooms are excellent for handling large classes in a hurry and visitors will be impressed with the shower arrangements.

Focal point of pride in this new educational facility could well be the library, which at the present contains 6,584 volumes. It will seat 114 at the present time and seating could be expanded to 200.

Students can study in the library and look out through plate glass windows onto the courtyard area and the gym and cafeteria. Individual carrels, or cubicles, can accommodate 32 students for isolated studying or reading.

One of the innovative programs of the new school will revolve around the library with the seventh and eighth grade students utilizing its shelves to the best advantage.

Language arts students will have two periods three days each week where remedial students will work on remedial reading supervised by a teacher and an aide, while other students will be involved in exploratory reading, where they can read anything they wish from the volumes in the library.

Fifth, sixth and seventh grade band students utilize the cafeteria under the direction of Billy Harrell.

"We cordially invite the public to this dedication and Open House," Supt. Flory said. "The Board, administration and faculty feel we have one of the finest middle schools in the state and we believe the parents and other citizens will agree when they see it."

Double Ring Ceremony unites pair here

St. John's Catholic Church of Hondo was the setting Saturday afternoon, Sept. 4, at 4:00 for the marriage of Miss Dianna Florence Haby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Haby of Hondo, to Alvin James Kowalik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix F. Kowalik, Jr. of San Antonio.

Rev. George Stuebben, pastor of St. John's and Msgr. Thomas Lyssy, pastor of St. Benedict's Catholic Church, San Antonio, officiated at the nuptial mass and double ring ceremony.

On either side of the altar stood tall candlebras with lavender candles and tall baskets of white gladioli, with lavender and white asters.

Mrs. Evelyn Boon was organist and Henry M. Finger was vocal soloist. Mass servers were Joey and Tony Tschirhart, Hondo.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza with an empire waist of Chantilly lace adorned with seed pearls. The A-line skirt and long full-puffed sleeves had rows of lace with pearls. The detachable train fell gracefully from a large bow, into a flowing chapel train that was circled with matching lace and pearls. A crown of lace and pearls held her silk veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and lavender asters, with streamers of green ivy and white ribbons tied with love knots and wedding rings.

Mrs. James Davis, San Antonio, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Loretta Saathoff, San Antonio, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Joyce Kowalik, sister of the groom, Mary Lee Saathoff and Patsy Richter, San Antonio, and Jonelle Wurzbach, Castroville, cousin of the bride. Dawn Davis, San Antonio, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

They wore identical empire-waisted gowns of lavender crepe with purple velvet ribbon at the waist and at the cuff of the long full-puffed sleeves. They wore matching shoes and fresh lavender asters in their hair. Each carried nosegays of lavender asters with purple ribbon.

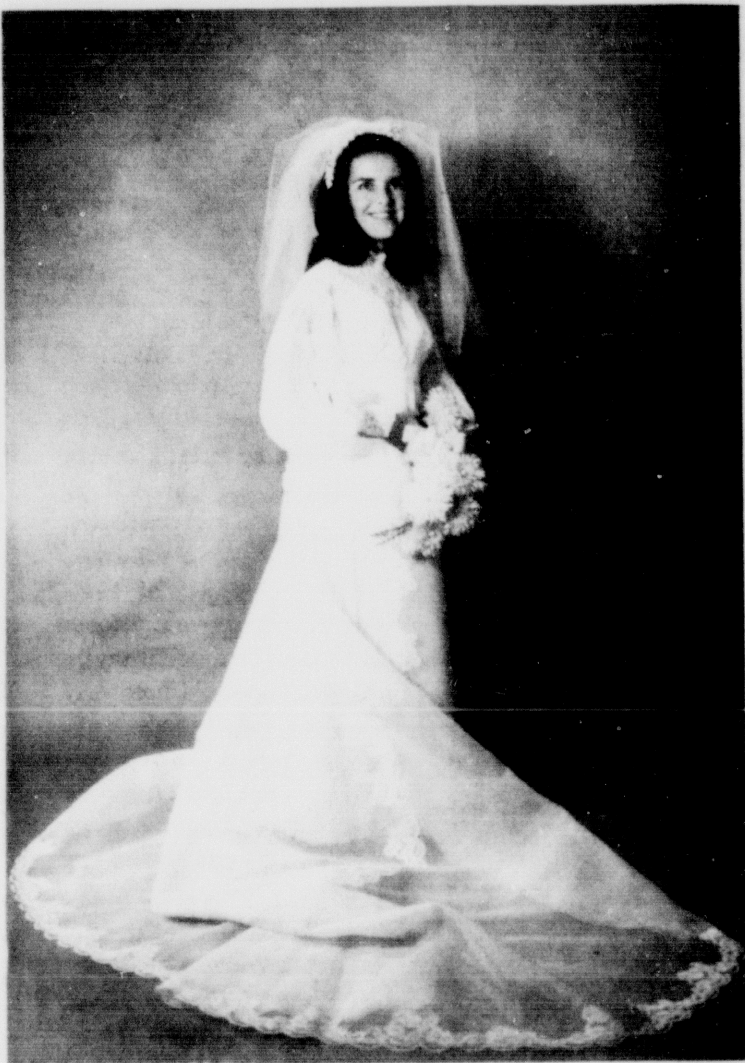

Felix F. Kowalik III, San Antonio, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Leisner F. Poth, Jr. of Poth; James Davis, Jonathan Meinen, Tommie Vistal, Jr. and Bob Hughes, San Antonio. Gary Wiatrek, San Antonio, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer. Ushers were Leonard Rotter, Jr. of Poth, John Clanner of Marion and Glenn Vaughn, San Antonio.

Immediately after the ceremony, the reception, dinner and dance was held at the Quilt Gun Club Hall. Mrs. Tony Griffin, sister of the bride, presided at the bride's book.

Cake and punch were served by Mrs. Alfred Ray Breiten, Mrs. Richard Schweers, and Misses Dancy Menk and Becky Hoffmann.

A barbecue dinner was served buffet style to 450 relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Saathoff led the wedding march.

After a wedding trip to the Texas Coast, the couple will live at 4212 Old College Rd., Bryan. The bridegroom is attending college at Texas A&M. The bride will be employed at General Telephone Co., Bryan.

Here in Hondo

The Stanley Mummies had as their guests this week, Mrs. Alfred Neuman and daughters, Doris, Lois and Linda of Charlotte, Larry Franklin of Kingsville and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Booker and Gary of Croton, Ohio.

Stella Mumme attended the National Agriculture Economics Association convention in Carbondale, Ill. She was elected to serve on the student section of the national board of Direction. She was sponsored by Texas Tech Agricultural Economics Association and is expected to attend the National Convention next year in Gainesville, Fla.

Included in Texas Tech's enrollment are Mrs. Billy Joe (Debbie Cade) Mumme and Stella Mumme as seniors. Also, Robert Charles (Bobby) Mumme as a freshman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vernon of Del Rio, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Patterson of Uvalde and S/Sgt. Doug Owen and wife, Jeanne, and baby daughter, Jeanie Marie, spent the weekend with their mother, Mrs. Homer Tomerlin.

The Owens left for Lockburn, Ohio and from there to Topeka, Kan. where Sgt. Owen will be stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tschirhart and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Renken were vacationing in Ruidosa, New Mexico when they heard the special news bulletin on TV about the flood situation here in Hondo and Medina County. They decided to cut short their vacation by a couple of days and return home.

Mrs. Larry Hall, nee Jeanne Cornelson, former Hondo resident and graduate of Hondo High School, was recently selected as a candidate for "Outstanding Young Woman of America" for 1971. This honor makes Mrs. Hall a possible recipient of the annual national award.

That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

Hometown interest in our County Museum sparked an inquiry from EARLINE WATSON, former Hondoan turned San Antonian, who wanted to visit us Labor Day. I hope she was among those present and that she will write and let us know her impressions.

JAMES and DORIS (Moehring) MENKE of Baytown are loyal and enthusiastic Medina Countians, wherever their travels take them.

Jim has done a lot of research re the History of Medina County and, from time to time, has shared his findings for the rest of us to study and enjoy. Jim is a "transplant" to Medina County. (Good root system, too!)

Most recent effort is a "partnership" Scrapbook of Medina County which the Menkes have compiled, mimeographed and assembled by hand into a sturdily bound book worthy of inclusion in any library.

Generously, they have supplied our Hondo Public Library with a copy which I was privileged to "sneak preview" before delivery.

The Scrapbook's various chapters cover Early History, which includes one of JOSIE (Mrs. Amos) FINGER's carefully researched stories, from a series taken from her Historical Scrapbook; and The Gutierrez-Magee Expedition, The Battle of the Medina River, by the late J. FRANK JUNG-MAN.

J. A. RIOS, a 1964 HHS graduate, and later of the University of Texas, is another Medina Countian whose area stories are included. There are several other area stories.

Complete shiplists of the Brig Alberdine and of some 15 other ships record names of many pioneer settlers of this county whose descendants are natives and continue to live here.

Invaluable as reference is the 7th US Census, made in 1850, and compiled from the original handwritten copy. At that time Medina County's families numbered 177, for a total of 881 inhabitants.

The Menkes merit the appreciation of all the present inhabitants of our growing county.

PAUL RICHTER is among our still young octogenarians at 88. A retired cotton buyer and former Farmer's Union executive, he now makes his home with his sister, Mrs. A. J. SCHROEDER, 602 20th Street.

While Mr. R was looking at Museum displays of turn-of-the-century wearing apparel he remarked, "I have a necktie that one of my aunts gave me on my 11th birthday. Guess it didn't see much wear because it is still in good shape." Commenting about the big floor scales in the store room of the old SP depot he said that he had "weighed many a shipment of grain on this very same spot long years ago."

On March 3, 1876, LOUIS GRAFF, great-grandfather of FRANK and JOHNNIE GRAFF (and their many Medina County cousins) joined the National Association of Veterans of the Mexican War.

Frank has the certificate, receipted for the $2 dues, on display in the Museum here. A letter announces an anniversary celebration held in 1875 in the Texas Senate Chamber, permission for its use "having been tendered by the XIVth Legislature."

Students in Grades 1-6, who attended Medina County schools in 1875 used these texts: Monteth's Geography, Quackenbush's Arithmetic 1-2-3; German & Peterman's German Readers 1-5; Class Grammar; and Shilling's Natural History and Science. (What, no spelling?)

If any former students are willing to admit having attended school almost 100 years ago, have any of the above text books, what a valuable contribution these would make to our Museum's "Good old golden rule days" memorabilia!

Where former County Judge JIM DUNCAN spent Labor Day this year, I do not know (probably in the cool, cool, cool of his home). But I do have it (on the good authority of the 1939 file of the Anvil Herald) that he spent the day that year picnicking and swimming in Garner Park.

Said Jim on that occasion (quote): Did you ever sit up all night in a rocking chair with a bad case of sunburn? (end quote).

Ninety-four (count 'em) happy birthday wishes, with my love, go to Mrs. WILLIAM ("Grameezie") BRIEDEN of Castroville on Monday, Sept. 13th. She will be honored on Sunday, a day ahead of time, with the family celebration that has been a tradition for many years, for Grameezie is dearly beloved.

Careful food handling is answer against poisoning

By Barbara Fowler
Home Demonstration Agent

A harmful bacteria some times found in perishable picnic foods and improperly canned and smoked foods is the botulin toxin, reminds Barbara Fowler, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Poor food-handling practices--lack of sanitation, insufficient cooking and improper storage--may allow bacteria in food to increase to dangerous levels, she explains.

And, the hot summer months are especially conducive to bacteria growth, as perishable foods are carried on picnics and cookouts without proper refrigeration. During this time, outbreaks of illness from contaminated foods are common, the agent says.

At the grocery, improperly canned or smoked foods can be contaminated with the botulin toxin. In fact, Mrs. Fowler points out, some canned foods have recently been recalled by the Food and Drug Administration after they were found to contain the toxin.

One way to spot contaminated canned foods is to check for swelling or leaking, but that contamination will not always cause a can or jar lid to swell or leak.

Careless home canning can also cause contamination, so the danger of food poisoning is not limited to commercially-packed foods, Mrs. Fowler reminds.

Symptoms of botulism, the illness caused by the botulin toxin, usually develop within 12 to 36 hours after eating food containing the toxin. The fatality rate is high--about 65% in the U.S., she says.

To guard against this type of food poisoning, the agent makes these suggestions:

Cook food for home canning at least 30 minutes at 240 degrees F.

Avoid use of food from swollen or leaking cans or jars.

Always wash hands after handling any leaking can or jar.

And, return any swollen or leaking food cans or jars to the store where purchased, not only to get your money back but also to alert the manager to the possible danger of contaminated food.

If you need the information on how to check the gauges of your pressure cooker at home, contact Mrs. Fowler at Box 445, Hondo, or call her at 426-2233.

Man, look at the loot!

This could be termed a tired, but happy group of golf players. Or maybe some are not so happy for they are runners up and consolation winners. Anyway they are the final winners in the Hondo Invitational Golf Tournament played last weekend at the Hondo Golf Course. With the exception of the two kneeling on the right, they will not be listed in order. Doug Smith Jr., second from right, kneeling, beat out defending champion Carl Werner, right, for the championship. Other winners include: Championship Flight Consolation -- Travis Bailey and Jim Raines; First Flight -- Russell Frisch, B. Abbott, runnerup; Consolation -- E. Rodriguez and W. Frazier, Jr.; Second Flight -- Dale Fell, Bill Young; Consolation -- Milton Renken, Carl White; Third Flight -- Jackie Winkler, Curtis Neice; Consolation -- J. Rosas, Bill Higbie; Fourth Flight -- Consolation, H. Carroll, E. Flores; Fifth Flight -- T. Thalman, J. A. Hutto; Consolation -- Arthur Goerges, Bill Brewer; Sixth Flight -- Larry Griffin, C. Renfro; T. Hopper, A. J. Ploch. Some 112 golfers started out the tournament on Saturday.

The winner!

Doug Smith, Jr. grabbed all the honors at the Hondo Invitational Golf Tournament staged over the Labor Day weekend. He edged out last year's winner Carl Werner after the two had battled down to the finals in the Championship Flight. Some 112 golfers entered the event this year.

Football has many good teams in '71

Never in the history of football have so many collegiate powers moved into high gear so early in the season. Fourteen of last year's Top Twenty do battle Saturday in season curtain-raisers, and we've hardly gotten by Labor Day!

Orange Bowl champ, Associated Press National Champion, and our #2 team from 1970 (we conclude our ratings before the bowl "season") - loaded Nebraska - takes on one of the West Coast's pre-season favorites, the Oregon Ducks. We rated Oregon 27th in our final rankings. Until they prove otherwise, they're 26-point underdogs to the Cougars.

Graduation took its toll from 3rd-ranked Ohio State, but Woody Hayes has a way of pulling replacements out from under his rolled-up shirt sleeves. The Big Ten opens conference play the earliest in its history, and in this early one, the Buckeyes are favored over the Iowa Hawks by 29 points.

Top attraction in the Big Ten has to be the game between the two pre-season favorites, Michigan and Northwestern. The Wolverines were 7th in our final ratings for '70, the Wildcats, 16th. The first rose goes to Michigan... they'll win by 14.

Sonny Sixkiller, 13th-rated Washington's key to a climb to the top of the Pacific Coast Conference, leads the Huskies against Santa Barbara in their 1971 opener. If there is a one-sided game on the schedule, this could be it... Washington by "many".

Friday night, Alabama travels to Southern Cal to officially open the major college football season. The Tide was 14th in '70... the Trojans, 21st. Graduation hit Southern Cal harder than it has in many years. Alabama will win by 3 points.

Two more West Coast football powers rumble into action Saturday: Rose Bowl champ Stanford, rated 11th last fall, tangles with Missouri, and 15th-rated UCLA meets Pitt. The plunkett-less Indians may have trouble... they're favored by nine... but the Bruins should whip the Panthers by 21.

In the South and Southwest, three powerful gridiron neighbors, Louisiana State, Arkansas, and Mississippi, should start their '71 campaigns in the win column. LSU, rated 6th last year, entertains Colorado, 317. The Tigers will be tough again... LSU by ten. The Razorbacks finished in the #8 position, but are supposedly rebuilding. California will be the underdog here by 13 points. And Ole Miss may have a bit of a surprise toughie in Long Beach State. The Rebels are favored by 16 points.

New parking lot slated

Owl football fans will have a new, additional parking area this year for home games.

The old Lacy play grounds will be converted to parking on the night of Owl games and persons with pre-sale tickets can enter from that area.

Fans are urged to enter the parking lot through the west gate, turning off Ave. I. And if adults do not have pre-sale tickets, they should not use this lot," Supt. Kenneth Flory said. "For only student tickets will be sold at the north gates."

Cowboys host Jackets

The D'Hanis Cowboys meet the Sabinal Yellowjackets at 8 p.m. Saturday in D'Hanis and the fans should see a fine contest since Sabinal

Discuss activities

Newly-elected officers and board members of the student section of the American Agricultural Economics met at the conclusion of the association's annual conference at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale (Aug. 15-18) to discuss preliminary plans for the 1971-72 program of student activities. New officers are, seated, from left: Michael Peacock, vice-president, Texas Technological University, Lubbock; A. J. Burns, president, Louisiana State University student; Randy Martin, secretary-treasurer, University of Illinois student; and Eddie Miller, editor, Oklahoma State University, student. Board members present are from left standing: Stephen Mathis of Putnam, Okla., Oklahoma State University student; Don Villwock of Edwardsport, Ind., Purdue University student; Miss Stella Mumme of Hondo, Texas Technological University, Lubbock; J. P. Mansfield III of Geyser, Montana, student at Montana State University, Bozeman; and John Sjo, Kansas State University staff member and chairman of the AAEA student affairs committee.

Castroville has plenty to brag about "the day"

CASTROVILLE--Ordinarily, Castroville, the little Alsatian community of 2,000 located just 25 miles west of San Antonio, spends its Sundays in a peaceful and quiet sort of way, free from the hustle and bustle of big city life.

But Sunday, Aug. 22, was not an ordinary Sunday in Castroville.

On this day, thousands of visitors from far and near pushed and squeezed their way into a small city to become part of the largest and most successful St. Louis Day Celebration ever.

Sunday's guest book revealed that visitors from at least 8 foreign countries and 23 states were represented.

These included foreign guests from Germany, the Republic of China, France, England, Ethiopia, South Vietnam, Mexico and Bolivia.

Visitors from all parts of the U.S., from Massachusetts down to Florida on the Eastern seaboard, and from Oregon to Southern California on the West Coast, participated in the giant festival, that has already been designated as "Homecoming for the State of Texas" by the Texas Tourist Agency.

In all, the 500 volunteer workers dished out over 8,000 pounds of Alsatian-style sausage and boneless beef barbecue, 4,500 pounds of potato salad, more than a ton of cole slaw, over 1,500 pounds of ranch style beans, to say nothing of the many gallons of tea and coffee, thousands of slices of bread and delicious cake, approximately 30,000 servings of beer and soda, and over 1,000 hot dogs. Still this was not enough. The Parish Committee is already planning on preparing even more food for next year.

Re-recording of brands now a must in County

BY EDNA McDADE

Effective Aug. 30, and applying to all Texas counties, all brands and marks on Texas livestock must be re-recorded with the county clerks in each respective county.

Medina County Clerk Henry Schulte is prepared to re-record the almost 3000 brands as registered in Vol. 1 which includes entries from Aug. 24, 1943 to present date.

Livestock owners will have a six-month period (Aug. 30 through Feb. 29, 1972) in which to reregister brands in current or previous use. Full information about the new law (S.B. No. 249) is available in the county clerk's office.

Since each county clerk may record for his given county only, Schulte reminds producers with operations in counties other than Medina, that brands and marks must be recorded there as the law requires.

Medina County, as provided in Art. 6891-92, issued in 1883, also has its own brand, as do the other counties in Texas. The Medina brand is M.A. This can be used, in addition to the owner's private brand, provided it be placed on the animal's neck, which might explain why it is seldom used.

Brands recorded in this county also show ownership by residents of Atascosa, Bander, Bexar, Brio, Live Oak, Guadalupe, Kerr, Menard, LaSalle, Starr, Uvalde, Mason and others.

After the deadline on the first decade's effective date, Feb. 29, 1972, any un-re-recorded brand or mark will be available on a "first come" basis, according to the Texas Legislative Service.

Brand records in Medina County date back as early as 1848. In the courthouse archives is Vol. 1 which records 524 brands, the first of which is entered Sept. 1, 1855, on blue lined pages and written in fine English script which reflects the German script. This was issued to John Leinweber, "a resident of Vandenberg, whose stock is running about his residence, and whose only marks claimed are an underbit in the left ear". The entry was signed by Louis Huth, county clerk.

Since Texas brands may be sold as personal property, or willed to heirs as their property, Medina County records are full of such transactions, according to Schulte.

Brands issued to minors, as early as Nov. 16, 1878, almost a century ago, include one "To Jeff Davis Rackley, a minor of Medina County, cancelled and held for naught June 2, 1889."

Letters of the alphabet, carrying various descriptive positions such as the Walking, Rocking, Flying, Dragging M etc., were popular as brands. Somewhere there is a record of a "70" brand, credited to some sentimental cattleman who thus remembered that his wedding anniversary began in 1870.

More modern are the six brands, registered here in 1955, by the Simon family, who included Joseph, Rosalie, Louise, Juliana, Catharina and Gustav, all minors, and whose brands are 1S, 2S, 3S 4S, 5S, and 6S, respectively. If they are still being used, these must also be re-recorded under the new law.

The Rocker M. brand, registered in 1851 by Martin Nester, and said to be in current use by his great-grandson, Roy J. Nester, also comes under the re-registration rule if its use is to be continued.

Texas has had laws requiring brand registration since 1854, although there are records of even earlier registrations. One such, which was displayed at the Texas Centennial (Dallas 1936) was an iron used in the Texas Valley in 1830 and contributed by Juan De Simo of that area.

It was reported then that the brand, designed by a Spanish priest, was still being used on cattle run on the La Becerra Ranch in Willacy County. Medina County has record of a brand, registered 1850-57, by George Macdona. Although Macdona is the name of a neighboring community, in Bexar County, there is nothing to indicate that the village was named for George.

Cattlemen have been too busy mending fences since the floods, said one of those questioned, to be concerned about the plus and minus benefits of the new law.

"If it's a law, we will comply, of course," he said. "I don't think any cattleman would be willing to see a brand that his family has used for generations ago to some outsider just because he failed to re-register it within the allowable periods."
